

ALEXANDRIA, VA. FRIDAY, JANUARY 9, 1874

The proposed mass meeting of unemployed workmen in New York was a failure. About three hundred men moved in groups through Union square, but no leader appearing to organize the meeting, they soon dispersed.

A court of inquiry, composed of Rear Admirals Charles H. Davis and John L. Worden, Commodore John C. Howell and Captain Stephen B. Luce, judge advocate, met at the Navy Department yesterday and organized, in accordance with orders from Secretary Robeson, to investigate the circumstances attending the loss of the Virginia.

The New York Tribune notes an advance of two cents in pork and lard during the past month in that market, owing to gambling speculation in future deliveries, the operators being compelled to work for an enormous percentage of margin.

Rev. Wm. M. Dame, rector of the Episcopal Church, at Middleburg, Va., has received a call to take charge of the Episcopal Church at Norfolk.

Rev. Geo. T. Fitzhugh, was ordained Priest, in Christ Church (Episcopal) at Cambridge, Md., on the 19th of December.

It has been announced that the Banking and Currency Committee of Congress has determined to request the opinions of a large number of gentlemen upon the financial situation in order that they may be the better enabled to frame a bill which shall meet the necessities of the country and the demands of the hour.

The Charleston News says that the announcement of the discovery of a tree in Australia that possesses anti-miasmatic properties, has excited a deep interest in the low country of South Carolina, and a general desire is entertained to know something more of it.

It is said that a telegram can be sent from Land's End in England to Kirkwall in Scotland, a distance of 700 miles, at one cut, a word. In this country a rate equal to at least twelve times as much would be charged for the same service.

The whole number of hogs packed this winter in the West, as far as reported, is 5,410,314, against 4,831,558 during the year previous. This is a hog for every eight persons in the United States.

The amount of interest in arrears and to fall due the 1st of January and the 1st of July, 1874, in Virginia, is, according to the report of the second auditor, about $2,242,088.98.

A decree has been issued in Spain calling out the entire reserve of 1874 for actual service.

Episcopal Diocese of Missouri. It will doubtless be gratifying to the many friends of the Rev. Benjamin E. Reed in Virginia, to hear of his marked success in St. Louis. Mr. Reed took charge of Mount Calvary Church last winter, and by his wonderful zeal and energy has accomplished already a great work.

To-day, after the lapse of one year, we have to boast of a church filled to overflowing every Sunday—a Sunday school proportionately larger than any in the city—the entire debt, which was a large one, liquidated to the last dollar—the most enthusiastic feeling in the vestry and congregation; and although it would seem incredible to any one familiar with the condition of the church a year ago, we are proposing now to enlarge our accommodations, and add to the capacity of the building.

THE MARYLAND LEGISLATURE yesterday carried out the programme agreed on in the caucus of the Democratic members held on Tuesday evening. John Lee Carroll was elected President of the Senate, and Hon. Jesse K. Hines was elected Speaker of the House. Eight Democrats refused to vote for Mr. Hines, and cast blank ballots. Mr. Seth, one of the "Independents" who was expelled from the caucus, made an attempt to raise a committee of investigation to inquire into Mr. Hines' right to a seat in the House on account of certain alleged disqualifications, but he was ruled out of order. The Republicans voted for Mr. John A. Koons, of Frederick county. At each session of the Legislature the public printing is a great bone of contention. The Baltimore Gazette has intimated its willingness to do the printing for the Legislature at low rates, but the two Annapolis Democratic papers have joined their forces, it is not probable that the work will be done in Baltimore. The Senate elected Rev. W. H. D. Harper (Methodist) and Father Obley (Roman Catholic) as Chaplains. The House has not yet elected a Chaplain. Both the Senate and House of Delegates adjourned over to Tuesday.

Letter from Richmond. [Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.] RICHMOND, VA., Jan. 8, 1874.—News is scarce to-day. The Legislature was in session but a short time to-day. In the Senate a communication was received from the Governor in reference to jurisdiction of the State over National Cemeteries, which was referred.

The House joint resolution fixing Friday at one o'clock as the time for electing a judge for Halifax county was agreed to.

House bill extending the time for the collection of taxes for 1873 was agreed to.

By Mr. Thomas: Bill incorporating the American and European Land Company.

The following joint resolution was offered, and laid over under the rules:

Resolved, That the Judges of the Supreme Court of Appeals be respectfully requested to state to the General Assembly whether, in their opinion, the exigencies of the public judicial business require a continuance of the Special Court of Appeals after its expiration in February, 1874, and if so, to make such suggestions to the General Assembly as they may deem of importance touching the organization of said court.

A joint resolution for the appointment of a committee on constitutional amendments was rejected.

In the House the passage of joint resolutions by the Senate in reference to the sale of forfeited and delinquent lands was communicated from the Senate.

The application for redimption of State jurisdiction over Federal Cemeteries, was referred.

House bill in regard to judgment liens was read the first time.

On motion of Matthew Harrison copies of Mumford's Code were donated to House clerks.

Nothing else of importance was transacted. The House adjourned after a half hour's session.

MISCELLANEOUS. Mr. Geo. Wythe Mumford gets $6,500 for compiling the Code of 1873. It took him six months to accomplish it.

It is said that prominent Democrats in Washington have telegraphed Governor Kemper not to pay President Grant the visit contended for by Col. John S. Mosby, and that they have dispatched a committee to wait on His Excellency and ask him to reconsider his determination of paying the visit.

The Supreme Court of Appeals and Special Court of Appeals are both in session.

I noticed in the city to-day S. C. Neale, Jno. S. Barbour, and Geo. R. Shinn, esq., all of your city. Col. C. F. Suttle has been here for several days.

From telegrams received last night it was feared we might have another flood, but at a late hour this evening it had only risen about fourteen inches.

A meeting of the life members of the Virginia Agricultural Society is called for the 14th instant.

The General Assembly is now asked to refund to the Petersburg and Washington Railroad Company the $5,000 tax paid by them on the amount of capital stock, as the charter was not granted.

The Senatorial caucus meets to-night. A lively time is anticipated. There are no less than twenty names mentioned in connection with the position, and a large proportion of these will be placed in nomination. It is, however, thought that the contest lies between Gov. Walker, Col. Withers, Mr. Hunter, Mr. John Good, jr., Mr. Jas. Barbour and Gov. Smith.

The Board of the Virginia Agricultural and Mechanical College is in session here. The most important business transacted was the election of Mr. Stephens, Superintendent of the experimental farm near Blackburg.

The Conservative Executive Committee was in session this evening.

A caucus of the Conservative Senators met to-night, and after a preliminary discussion, balloting for a United States Senator commenced. No nominations were made, the agreement being that the ballot should be informal.

The following was the result of the ballot: Withers, 22; Hunter, 16; Good, 13; Stuart, 10; Smith, 9; Good, 9; Brouce, 2; Cochran, 2; Bagwell, 1; Walker, 3; Montague, 2; Barbour, 5; Flournoy, 2; Letcher, 1; W. W. Walker, 2; Judge Robinson, 6; Judge Christian, 2; Lovensien, 2; W. P. Cecil, 4. The real strength of no one was shown. To-morrow night the caucus meets again, when the work will begin in earnest.

Members of the General Assembly and committee clerks get $6 per diem, work or play. The committee clerks in the Senate get $42 per week by law, and a practice has come into vogue of presenting each clerk at the end of session with one dollar per diem extra. Last session the clerks drew $720 regular pay and $120 extra pay for four months' service.

In the Supreme Court of Appeals to-day: Grigsby's adm'r vs. Grigsby, appeal from the Circuit Court of Fauquier county; appeal allowed and no bond required.

In the Police Court to-day, A. J. Andrew, charged with defrauding G. W. Harrison, of Alexandria, was discharged.

THE SENATORIAL QUESTION continues to be the absorbing topic at Richmond and throughout the State. The papers are discussing it; the people are speculating about it, and the members of the Legislature are revolving it in their puzzled minds. Other and perhaps more important questions are overshadowed by it; and it is fortunate for the public good that it is so soon to be disposed of. On Tuesday next, under a law of Congress fixing the time for the election of U. S. Senators, the election will take place, or at least be commenced. It will, however, be virtually determined before that day, for the outcome of the Conservative caucus will of course be the Senator. The Virginia adheres to its policy of declaring no individual preference; but utters the Legislature to rise above mere personal motives, and select the best man for the high place, without reference to private or personal considerations. We need at Washington a first-class man in every respect to represent Virginia—one who can speak with potential voice; one who will command respect; and one who, by reason of experience, wisdom and character, will take that high position in the Senate which the ambassador of Virginia should hold. We have too long already been represented there by a second or third-rate man, in the person of Mr. Lewis. Let us now take a step or several steps forward, and select a man who will be worthy of Virginia, past and present—worthy of her historic renown and of her present attitude before the world. Let the Legislature do this, and they may care not who is offended or who is disappointed, for the people will applaud them.—Lynchburg Virginian.

Prince William Circuit Court. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, January 8, 1874.

Editor Alexandria Gazette: I am requested to make it known through your paper that Judge Keith will not hold his court in Prince William next week. He is holding court in Wytheville to try the large and famous case of the Salt Works. The case will be more protracted than he expected and will therefore be continued to next week. You can therefore announce by authority that Judge Keith's court will not be held, and save the trouble and expense of attendance of jurors, suitors and witnesses.

Yours Very Truly, ERPA HUNTON.

AN OFFICE HOLDER.—An ex-hedge ventilator the fact that Gen. O. O. Howard has had a slight banking after office. At the time when he was being abused by an unscrupulous press for holding an unnecessary number of offices, he was merely Major-General U. S. Army, Commissioner Bureau of Fisheries, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands, President of Howard University, Director of Building-block Company, Treasurer and Trustee of Barry Farm Fund, President of Young Men's Christian Association, Treasurer of First Congressional Church Building Fund, and Vice President of Freedmen's Savings Bank.—Lynchburg Rep.

VIRGINIA NEWS. Two sailors of the British bark Magenta were found drowned in the dock at Richmond, yesterday. They were recognized by the captain as Dare Spencer and Edward Masters, to whom he had given leave to go ashore on Monday, but not returning when their leave had expired, he thought they had deserted. The men were both from Nova Scotia, Spencer, being married. The Gordonsville Gazette says:—"Our community was surprised and pained during Christmas week at the failure of Mr. W. T. Smith, one of our most worthy and enterprising business men. From the best information attainable by me, we learn that his liabilities amount to about $23,000, and his assets to about $18,000 to $20,000."

On Thursday night last, a number of dogs made a raid upon the flock of sheep belonging to the Poor House farm in Rockingham, and killed and wounded fourteen.

The Elections in Halifax County, Va. We entirely agree with the Petersburg News that the recent election of Major Ragland to the State Senate from Halifax county, by a majority of 450, is of far more importance and significance than simply the gain of a Conservative member of the Senate in the place of a carpet bagger. The colored majority in Halifax county after the war was about eleven hundred. The white of that county (prominent among whom was John R. Edmunds, now deceased) saw at once the danger, and at once set about by a wise and conciliatory policy in politics to break the force, and finally to destroy that majority. In 1869 the white people nominated two conservative blacks for the Legislature and elected them. Since then they have continued steadily to gain on the colored vote until, in the gubernatorial election, the county only gave some 200 votes against us; and now the tables have turned and that county has rolled up the very handsome and decided majority above indicated. The opponent of Major Ragland was a carpet bagger by the name of Eddy, who came down there from New York some four years ago as an assistant assessor of revenue, and after losing that office he set himself to work to secure a seat in the Senate at six dollars per day. He did succeed in wire-working himself into a nomination, but the respectable portion of the colored people of the county, did not esteem him worthy of having his ambition gratified, and rising above all party shackles, they supported a native born gentleman in preference to a carpet bagger. We also agree with the News that this is an example worthy the imitation of the colored people throughout Virginia and the South. Their best friends are the native white people, and the sooner they discard the political vagabonds who migrate here from the other States merely for spoils, the better will it be for all classes.—Lynchburg News.

LETTER FROM ATTORNEY GENERAL WILLIAMS.—The following is the letter of Attorney-General Williams to the President: DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE, WASHINGTON, January 7, 1874. To the President: SIR: You were kind enough, without my solicitation or any knowledge on my part, that you contemplated such a thing, to nominate me for Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States. Since that time the flood-gates of calumny in all directions have been opened upon me. My abilities have been disparaged, and my integrity brought in question, and it seems to me that a public opinion adverse to my appointment has been created which might hereafter embarrass your administration and perhaps impair my usefulness upon the bench.

With a perfect consciousness that I have performed with clean hands and an upright purpose all the duties of the various public places to which I have been called, and trusting to time and to a just public, when better informed, for my vindication, I respectfully ask you to withdraw from the Senate my nomination for Chief Justice.

I have the honor to be, with great respect, (Signed) GEO. H. WILLIAMS.

The President yesterday sent a message to the Senate withdrawing the nominations of Attorney General Williams for Chief Justice, and General B. H. Bristol for Attorney General.

A SUIT AT LAW AND A SUIT IN LOVE.—A breach of promise suit was entered in the Circuit Court yesterday for Emma V. Dyson against Charles W. Davis for alleged breach of promise of marriage, laying damages at $5,000. She charges that the defendant promised to take to his wife the plaintiff, and "yet the defendant not in the least regarding his many promises, but contriving and fraudulently intending craftily and slyly to deceive, the said defendant hath not within the time aforesaid kept his promise." &c. The parties to this suit are well known colored people, the defendant being a young colored man, residing at No. 235 New Jersey avenue southeast, and an employee of the Treasury Department. The plaintiff is quite a fine looking, bright mulatto girl, residing at the corner of Seventh and I streets southwest, and for several years has been a teacher in the colored schools located in the Anthony Bowen building.

The time for the marriage was set for the 30th of December last, and both parties, as also the friends of the bride expectant, made preparations for the event. Davis presented her with a ring inscribed "Mrs. C. W. Davis." Invitations, gotten up in style, were sent out. The priest was engaged, and the bride expectant, with three bridesmaids, was ready, as well as the supper, at a number of friends at the house were a number of friends of both parties, who patiently waited, but as the hour approached and no bridegroom appeared, the guests became impatient. A letter was brought to the expectant bride from Davis, in which he said he was sorry to disappoint her, but his mother did not wish him to be married.—Wash. Rep.

REDUCTION OF ESTIMATES.—The committee on appropriations is still engaged in the good work of cutting down the estimates. The Indian bill has already been cut down about one and a half millions, but is not susceptible of very much further reduction, as most of the appropriations are to carry out existing treaty stipulations. The committee are not at all satisfied with the department reductions as sent in yesterday, and are of the opinion that the administration is unnecessarily extravagant. The committee will reduce all the estimates to the amount they think proper, and then place the whole responsibility of endorsing or rejecting their action on the Senate and the House. The original estimates sent in were to the aggregate over $319,000,000. The committee propose to endeavor to bring the sum total down to the neighborhood of $280,000,000, which amount it is supposed, will be about the receipts of the government. The committee fear that the "tricks," which will be formed to get through appropriations for public buildings, may prevent as much of a reduction in this respect as is desirable.—Wash. Cor. Balt. Sun.

THE ICE CROP.—The winter so far has not proved very encouraging in regard to the ice crop, and all engage in the business of gathering it for summer sale or for pecking naturally begin to manifest some apprehension on the subject. In this vicinity there has been no ice made yet worth harvesting. The same is true of the Susquehanna river in the neighborhood of Port Deposit and Havre de Grace, whence the largest supplies of ice are drawn for household use in Baltimore during the summer. There is ample time, however, for making at the ice needed to fill the city ice houses, unless indeed the present unprecedented weather lasts to the end of the winter, extending should the winter thus far, there need be no fear of an ice famine, though the circumstance of a scarcity hereabouts may be used to increase the cost to consumers. At the north the rivers and ponds have already yielded a partial crop, and a great many tons must remain over from the extraordinary crop of the preceding season.—Balt. Sun.

FROM LOUISIANA.—A dispatch from N. W. Orleans dated yesterday, says:—"To-day being the Anniversary of the battle of New Orleans, was celebrated by a grand military display of State militia. Nearly two thousand troops, headed by Gen. Longstreet and staff, composed of infantry, artillery and cavalry, marched in procession and presented a very fine appearance. They were reviewed by Gov. Kellogg at Annunciation Square.

The Durrell committee return to-morrow Pinchbeck led to-day for Washington. Two more fusion members, making all but one from county returned by both bands, went into the Kellogg Legislature last night."

SUIT FOR DAMAGES.—Ex-Governor Henry H. Wells, now a resident of Washington city, has instituted suit in the Circuit Court of Richmond against Rush Burgess, esp. Collector of Internal Revenue for this district. For $1,000 damages, sustained by him in having to pay the United States income tax upon his salary as Governor of Virginia. This is understood to be a test case, and consequently involves a very large amount of money. It was yesterday removed by a writ of certiorari from the Circuit Court of Richmond to the Circuit Court of the U. S.—Richmond Enquirer.

FROZE TO DEATH.—On Sunday, the 20th ultimo, Edgar Williams and Resnera his wife, both colored, living between Coburn and Lindsay's on the C. & O. Railroad, left home on a visit, leaving their three young children in the house. Not returning at night-fall, it is supposed the children turned out to go to some neighbor's house, and lost their way. They were found next morning frozen to death. At any rate their deaths are accounted for in that way, though we had not supposed it was cold enough on that night to freeze anyone to death.—Gordonsville Gazette.
